To
David Garrick Esqr.

Sir

As You have own'd it to be Your chief Pride & Delight to Patronize every thing belonging to Shakespeare; I hope You'll not be offended at my taking the Liberty to place Your Name before the Music of an Old English Composer, who even now, when the Merit of our Great Poet is by Your means so Perfectly understood, is allowed to have Embellish'd one of His most Capital Tragedies.

I also beg, Sir, that this Inscription may be received as an humble token of Respect & Gratitude for Your many favours conferr'd on

Your most devoted Servant

John Johnston
