Philipott, Villare Cantianum (London, 1659), 393–401. – Written in an unaffected, conversational style, very different from the body of the book, by someone who knew, what Thomas Philipott did not know, how Queenborough got its name. I take it that this is the appendix ‘collected by John Philipott Esq; father to the authour’ which is mentioned on the title page (mistakenly described, however, as a list of the sheriffs of Kent).
